1. Look at the physical book.

Record the things that help people identify the book. Generally transcribe statements as found on the book-- title proper, other title information, variant titles, statements of responsibility/edition/publication/series, date of publication, copyright date, ISBN, etc. Make notes related to any of these identifying elements as required.
[Ch. 2, with Ch. 1]

2. Look at the physical book again.

Record the physical characteristics that would help people in selecting this particular book. Use media type, carrier type, number of pages, dimensions, font size if appropriate, etc. Make notes on any of these characteristics as required.
[Ch. 3, with Ch. 1]

3. Consider the book in terms of acquisition and access.

Record the things that affect people in obtaining the book. Use price, contact information, restrictions on access, restrictions on use, URL, etc.
[Ch. 4, with Ch. 1]

4. Consider the content of the book.

Record the things that help people identify the content in the book. Use preferred title [formerly "uniform title"], form of work, date of work, place of origin (see Ch. 16 to identify places), history of the work, content type, language of expression, identifiers, etc.
