

Nebraska Public Library Commission

Lincoln, Nov. 14, 1904.

To County superintendents:-

Some days ago, a statistical blank was sent you from this office. I should be glad to receive your reply at once, as our report should go to the printer in a few days. I append the questions enclosed in my previous ^{request.} ~~REPORT~~ The courtesy of an immediate reply will be greatly appreciated.

Edna D. Bullock, Sec'y.

1. Name of county _____ Number of school districts _____
2. How many districts have school libraries?
3. Were many books added to these libraries last year?
4. Was an average of $5 per district spent on rural school libraries in your county last year? If you know of more, how much? How was the money raised?
5. Have you urged the matter of school libraries upon the attention of your teachers? Have they had instruction in the use of books? Can they use school libraries to advantage?
6. Do you favor any form of school library legislation? If so, will you kindly outline the method you favor?
