

One Book for Nebraska Kids 2016
Activities for The Girl Who Was Supposed to Die by April Henry

1. Research the virus used in the book. Write about it as if you are a newspaper reporter.
2. Create a list of “best skills” you would like to have in case of emergency.
3. Write a description of how the GPS would get you from another location to your home.
4. What other books by April Henry would you like to read? Give a brief book talk on one.

If readers in your library come up with any other One Book ideas, please pass them along to Sally Snyder at sally.snyder@nebraska.gov or call her at 402-471-4003.
