Smart Investing: Reference Strategies and Resources Webinar via NCompass

Invited: All public libraries

Expectation: All 22 Smart Investing libraries should tune in at this time, or view the recording.

Description: An overview of the Santa Clara County Library District’s Smart Investing Reference Strategies and Resources training. All those interested in completing the 4-unit online training and the accompanying webinar support sessions will be asked to start by completing a pre-evaluation assessment. Please request that link if you do not have it: joann.mcmanus@nebraska.gov

Two week period (April 30 to May 15) -- Accomplish Week 1 Readings, review hot-linked web resources making note of how those might be useful to your customers, become familiar with this week’s definitions, and email JoAnn any questions/concepts that you would like covered at the next check-in webinar.

Librarian Training Course Check-in #1 Webinar (one-hour)

Thursday, May 15, 2:00 p.m. CDT

REGISTER AT: <http://nlc.nebraska.gov/scripts/calendar/eventshow.asp?ProgId=13135>

Description: Each of the four check-in webinars will be hosted by the Nebraska Library Commission and Kathy Prochaska Que our Partner Resource guest speaker. The format will include:

- 1) A discussion of the questions and concepts that were submitted prior to the session,
- 2) One “cool” feature shared by participants that they found on one of the web sites that would be valuable to customers looking for helpful financial sites (so be prepared to share this),
- 3) A 20-minute presentation by our partner expert/guest speaker on a topic related to something covered in the latest reading assignment, such as social security features, features to consider when deciding between a traditional and a Roth IRA, how credit scores can help or hurt you when getting a loan or mortgage, etc., and
- 4) A review of questions asked in the pre-test pertaining to the current unit.

Two week period between Check-in Webinars #1 & #2 -- Accomplish Week 2 Readings, review hot-linked web resources making note of how those might be useful to your customers, become familiar with this week’s definitions, and email JoAnn any questions/concepts that you would like covered at the next check-in webinar.
