EDNA D. BULLOCK, SECRETARY

LINCOLN 18 Sept, 1903.

To all friends of library extension:-

Enclosed herewith find a program of the ninth annual meeting of the Nebraska library association, to be held at Fremont October 7-8, 1903. Your attention is especially called to the meeting on the evening of October 8th. Mr. John C. Dana is one of the ablest of the more prominent librarians of the country. In addition to his ability as a library worker, he has a thorough understanding of western conditions and life, having been librarian of the Denver public library for a number of years.

You are cordially invited to attend this meeting and to permanently identify yourself with the Library association. In the library field of Nebraska, the "harvest is great and the laborers are few." We need your help. If you wish to join the association, send in your name and fifty cents for annual dues to Miss Margaret O'Brien, Omaha public library.

Library boards are asked to see to it that librarians have an opportunity to attend. It is a legitimate and most commendable use of library funds to send your librarian, and some, or all of your trustees to this meeting. Address all inquiries for local entertainment to Miss Jane H. Abbott, Fremont public library.

Kindly mention this meeting to anyone who may be interested, and ask your local editors to print the program in their papers. Help us to make this meeting a success, and to give Mr. Dana a good report to carry to the library profession of the country.

Sincerely,

Edna D. Bullock, Sec'y.
