6 Ja. 1906

To Nebraska librarians:-

We want news of Nebraska libraries - and want it soon. If there have been any changes in the affairs of your library during the past year, any new equipment, a new librarian, changes in the library board, improvements in library methods, efforts to make the library more useful, gifts, a new building, more money for maintenance, library entertainments, lecture courses, a stronger library spirit in the community - let us know. Include interesting or amusing incidents that have occurred in connection with your library.

Please furnish us with a corrected list of the members of your library board, giving their initials, as we wish to mail the bulletin to them.

This bulletin is your affair, and its success depends entirely on the degree of your co-operation in the effort. Here is your opportunity to evince the dwelling of the true library spirit among us.

An early and complete reply to this letter will be appreciated. We wish to send copy to the printer by Jan. 21, so please be prompt.

Sincerely,

Edna D. Bullock

Sec'y.
