

One Book for Nebraska Kids 2013

Activities for *Aliens on Vacation

1. What would you write for house rules for the visitors? (Page 21)
2. Make a Brochure for the Intergalactic B&B. (Page 56)
3. GRADE (page 62) stands for “Greeting and Review of Aliens Disguise for Earth.” Create other acronyms for the IBB.
4. Design an Alien and the planet they come from.
5. Now take that alien and dress it so he or she looks human.
6. What would your alien eat and drink, and why?
  - a. For example: Mine would eat rubber because she is flexible & stretchy.
7. As a citizen of Forest Grove, write your feelings and opinion of the B&B customers. What might someone think who does not know the truth about them.
8. Design an ideal layout for the Intergalactic B&B, both the building(s) and the outside space(s).
9. Select another site on earth that might attract alien visitors and prepare a brochure for it.

If readers in your library come up with any other activities, please pass your ideas along to Sally Snyder at sally.snyder@nebraska.gov or call her at 402-471-4003.

Puzzles, discussion questions, and more: <http://nlc.nebraska.gov/youth/obok/>