Is your document a monograph (one time) or a serial (many times)?

Consider it a SERIAL if it is intended to be published more than once. Examples would be quarterly or annual reports, monthly newsletters, college catalogs, etc. A serial generally contains new information in each issue.

Consider it a MONOGRAPH if it is intended to be published one time ONLY. Examples include special reports, speeches, letters or memos, hearings and laws. This applies even if it is possible that revised editions might be published. In general, a revised monograph contains basically the same information as the first edition, with revisions and updates.

IF YOUR DOCUMENT IS A SERIAL PLEASE CHECK THE BOX THAT IS CLOSEST TO THE INTENDED FREQUENCY.

IF YOUR DOCUMENT IS A MONOGRAPH PLEASE CHECK THE BOX TITLED "ONE TIME".

Remember to use interoffice mail to send your four (4) copies to the Clearinghouse.
