

14 Appointed by Cochran

Names Aviation Board, Labor Court and Library Commission

Lincoln, Neb., June 8 (A).—Governor Cochran today practically completed his administrative personnel by appointing 14 persons to the compensation court, aviation commission, library commission and the old age pension commission.

The appointments:

Compensation Court—Lawrence F. Welch of Omaha, attorney member, six-year term; Charles Jackman of Grand Island, employer member, four-year term; Frank M. Coffey of Lincoln, labor member, two-year term. Salaries, three thousand dollars a year each.

Aviation Board.

Aviation Commission—Dr. W. W. Arrasmith of Grand Island four-year term; W. J. Hotz of Omaha, four-year term; C. J. Campbell of Lincoln, four-year term; W. S. Rodman, jr., of Kimball, two-year term; H. W. Peterson of Omaha, two-year term. No salaries, but members receive expenses.

Library Commission—Harvey L. Webster of Tekamah, one-year term; Mrs. Nettie Hill Sims of Hastings, two-year term; John Delehant of Beatrice, three-year term; Mrs. P. L. Cady of Arlington, four-year term; Miss Anna Kramph of North Platte, five-year term. No salaries, but members receive expenses.