EDNA D. BULLOCK, SECRETARY

LINCOLN 21 Ap. 1902.

To librarians and library trustees:-

Your attention is directed to the Summer school for library training to be conducted by the Iowa state library commission at the State university of Iowa, June 16 to July 26, 1902. There are so few libraries in Nebraska that our Commission does not recognize the necessity for a special school in this state, but we cordially recommend the very excellent course offered in our neighboring state, and in so doing, we wish to emphasize the value and importance of training for librarians.

We urge upon the friends of library extension the imperative necessity of committing the library interests of Nebraska only to those who add to natural fitness for the work, the needful general education and special training.

The services of this Commission are at the command of the people of Nebraska in any attempt to better the condition of the libraries of the state.

Respectfully,

Edna D. Bullock, Sec'y.
