

When it comes to
English Language Arts...

...only 60% of Nebraska
students are on track!*

In 2015, Nebraska 4th graders scored 5 points higher than the national reading average. In 2024, Nebraska students scored 2 points lower, despite spending $4,500 more per kid. ****

BACK ON TRACK WITH LITTLE FREE LITERACY

<https://nlc.nebraska.gov/lfl>

Nebraska
Library Commission

Learn more about the program on our website:

Source: *Nebraska Department of Education | National Association for Educational Progress (NAEP) report card, 2024