November-December 2008

Volume 35, Number 6

ISSN 0884-9692

What's Up Doc? is a Blog

Times change, new technologies come along, and we use them to (hopefully) improve our services. What's up Doc?, our bimonthly newsletter listing state and federal publications received at the Library Commission, has gone 2.0! Sometimes doing something new means stopping doing something the old way. The print What's Up Doc? will cease publication with the November/December 2008 issue. The 2008 annual compilation of state documents will also be published soon. A new What's Up Doc? was launched as a blog in September 2008, and is accessible at <http://www.nlc.state.ne.us/blogs/whatsupdoc>

The new Doc features all of the information provided in the old Doc, and more. Blog format allows us to post lists of newly received publications, make announcements about state e-pubs that we have downloaded to our server, and blog about “documents in the news” more frequently than was possible with the bimonthly compilation. The publications lists include OCLC catalog numbers and hotlinks to downloaded copies of documents that any library can use to add them to their catalogs.

Doc is also broadening in scope to feature updates about other projects documents staff are involved with: Nebraska Memories, collaborative digitization projects, scanning materials from the NLC Archives, information services, etc.

We welcome feedback and comments about the new What's Up Doc?—pros and cons of making the change, need for future annual state docs compilations, comments on news postings, etc. Would you like to write a news article for us to post? How about using the blog to comment! Or contact Beth Goble, Government Information Services Director, 402-471-4017, email bgoble@nlc.state.ne.us.
